ORDER ACCEPTING GUILTY PLEA

Now before the Court is the Amended Findings and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge B. Janice Ellington containing her recommendation (1) that this Court adopt her findings that the Defendant's guilty plea in the above-styled and numbered cause was knowingly and voluntarily entered, with a full understanding of the consequences of the plea and the constitutional rights being waived, and that the plea was supported by an adequate basis in fact; (2) that the Court accept the Defendant's guilty plea; and (3) that the Court adjudge the Defendant guilty of the offense charged in Counts One and Six of the Indictment. (D.E. 99.)

On August 19, 2013, the Magistrate Judge, by designation and referral of this Court (pursuant to the authority of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3) and this Court's standing order of referral) and with the consent of the parties, conducted the re-arraignment and guilty plea colloquy of the Defendant, Jennifer Rivas. The Indictment charged the Defendant with having committed the following offense:

On or about July 3, 2013, in the Corpus Christi Division of the Southern District of Texas and elsewhere within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Defendants,

Erasmo Garza,
Sylvia Fonseca,
Jennifer Rivas,
Norma Torres,

Oscar Polanco-Padilla and Alan Rodriguez-Barrera,

knowingly and in reckless disregard of the fact that aliens had come to, entered, and remained in the United States in violation of law, did knowingly and intentionally conspire and agree together, with each other, and with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to transport, move, attempt to transport, and attempt to move said aliens within the United States in furtherance of such violation of law by means of a motor vehicle.

In violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections, 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii), 1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(I), and 1324(a)(1)(B)(i).

And

On or about July 20, 2013, in the Corpus Christi Division of the Southern District of Texas and elsewhere within the jurisdiction of the Court, Defendant,

Jennifer Rivas,

did knowingly and in reckless disregard of the fact that Jesus De La Rosa was an alien who had come to, entered, and remained in the United States in violation of law, transport and move such alien within the United States in furtherance of such violation of law by means of a motor vehicle.

In violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii) and 1324(a)(1)(B)(ii).

(D.E. 52.) After being placed under oath and advised of the charge against her, as well as her right to a jury trial and the consequences of entering a plea of guilty, the Defendant entered a plea of guilty to Counts One and Six of the Indictment.

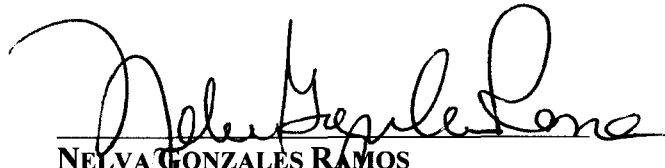

More than fourteen days have passed since the parties, respectively, were served with the Magistrate Judge's Amended Findings and Recommendation, and no party has filed objections. The Court regards such omission as the parties' agreement with and acceptance of the Magistrate Judge's findings. When no timely objection to a magistrate judge's findings and recommendation is filed, the district court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record and accept the magistrate judge's findings and recommendation. Guillory

v. PPG Industries, Inc., 434 F.3d 303, 308 (5th Cir. 2005) (citing Douglass v. United Services Auto Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1420 (5th Cir. 1996)); United States v. Rivas, 85 F.3d 193, 194 (5th Cir. 1996).

In the case at hand, the Court is of the opinion that the Magistrate Judge's Amended Findings and Recommendation is supported by the record and that there is no clear error. Furthermore, the Court finds that the Defendant, Jennifer Rivas is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea; that she is aware of the nature of the charge made against her, the consequences of her plea, and the nature of the constitutional rights that she is waiving; that her plea of guilty is a knowing and voluntary plea that did not result from force, threats, or promises (other than promises in a plea agreement); and that it is supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense with which she is charged.

THEREFORE, the Court ADOPTS the Magistrate Judge's findings as its own, ACCEPTS Defendant's plea of guilty, and ADJUDGES the Defendant, Jennifer Rivas, guilty as charged in Counts One and Six of the Indictment.

ORDERED this 6th day of September 2013.
